UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

David Burns,
Plaintiff

v.

M.D. Hanf, et al.,
Defendants

Case No.: 2:19-cv-000722-JAD-NJK

Order Granting Extra Time for Response to Motion for Summary Judgment

[ECF Nos. 38, 48, 49, 50]

On January 11, 2022, Plaintiff David Burns submitted a long-overdue response¹ to the defendants' pending motion for summary judgment.² He explains in the most recent of two requests to extend time that he is incarcerated, and his legal papers were confiscated and only recently returned to him.³ For that reason, he was unable to prepare a timely response, or a motion to extend the deadline to file it, and he ultimately filed his response as soon as possible. I find that Burns has shown both excusable neglect and good cause, so IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that his requests to extend the deadline to file his response brief [ECF Nos. 48, 50] are GRANTED. Burns's response brief at ECF No. 49 is deemed timely. The deadline for defendants' reply brief is governed by Local Rule 7-2(b).
